

PSYCHOLOGY

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Year 12	Research Methods Approaches in Psychology Psychopathology Revision	Memory Attachment Social Influence Revision	Research Methods Revision Mock Examinations Research Methods
Year 13	Research Methods Biopsychology Issues and Debates in Psychology Revision	Gender Aggression Schizophrenia Revision	Revision Final Examinations

Useful Links

Specification:

<http://www.aqa.org.uk/subjects/psychology/as-and-a-level/psychology-7181-7182>

<http://www.aqa.org.uk/subjects/psychology/as-and-a-level/psychology-7181-7182/scheme-of-assessment>

Digital textbooks:

<http://www.illuminate.digital/aqapsych1/>

<http://www.illuminate.digital/aqapsych2/>

KS5 Specification Information

AQA Advanced Level GCE in Psychology

Year 13 Final A Level Examinations	Assessment Details
Paper 1: Social influence, Memory, Attachment, Psychopathology	Exam worth 33% of total A level marks consisting of multiple choice, short answer and extended writing questions including 25% statistics and research methods. 2 hours
Paper 2: Approaches in Psychology, Biopsychology and Research Methods	Exam worth 33% of total A level marks consisting of multiple choice, short answer and extended writing questions including 25% statistics and research methods. 2 hours
Paper 3: Issues and Debates in Psychology, Gender, Schizophrenia and Aggression	Exam worth 33% of total A level marks consisting of multiple choice, short answer and extended writing questions including 25% statistics and research methods. 2 hours

Where will this Subject take me?

The course has been designed as a broad introduction to the nature of psychology as a science. Students are expected to apply their knowledge and understanding to develop transferable skills of analysis, interpretation, evaluation and critical thinking.

Studying psychology equips you for a wide range of career pathways including: Psychologist (such as clinical / educational / child / occupational / forensic / health / sport), mental health work, nursing, therapist or counselling, law, marketing, social work, scientist, data analyst, speech therapy and teaching.